

Required Text: Kathleen Sullivan and Gerald Gunther, Constitutional Law, Foundation Press, 16th edition (2007). [Only the 16th edition will do.]

Course Requirements:

Students are expected to attend class, arrive on time, and read the material. I will take attendance. Excessive absences may adversely affect your grade. Students will be called upon to recite cases in class.

There will be a multiple-choice midterm and a second exam at the end of the semester. The second exam will be cumulative. Each exam will account for approximately 50% of the final grade. The date of the midterm will be announced in class at least one week in advance

The only circumstance under which I will give make-up tests will be when a student provides written documentation from a physician that a member of the student's immediate family has died or that the student or a member of his immediate family suffered from a grave illness that prevented the student from taking the exam at the appointed time. Absent such documentation, I will not give a make-up.

Students who miss the exam for one of the specified reasons noted above and who wish to take a make-up must notify the instructor within seven days after the exam. Students who do not appear for the exam at the scheduled time and do not provide the required documentation and notice will receive an "F" on the exam.
